

Dear FCC,

Please protect our public airways and leave the ban on public nudity and language in place. There is plenty of filth and questionable behavior currently being broadcast and we do not need to overturn the current ban protecting our families and children. My nieces and nephews will have plenty of time in their lives to view this type of behavior, let's not increase their ability to view these inappropriate practices at such a young age.

Thank you,

Crystal Thompson

Bowling Green, OH 43402